

DEFECTED x CHAMPION SLINGBAG TROLLEY DELUXE NB MK2

UB0059981NB

Defected, Champion, and UDG come together in an exclusive collaboration that brings together house music, streetwear heritage, and professional DJ gear. Built for creators, travelers, and the global house music community, this limited edition celebrates the people who keep the dancefloor moving.

More than a record bag, this is a statement. Whether you're playing a club set, digging through vinyl, or traveling between cities, the SlingBag Trolley Deluxe is designed to move with you. It carries up to 60 LPs while providing the protection, organization, and mobility professional DJs rely on every day.

Built from durable water-resistant 420D nylon, the foam-padded main compartment protects your records wherever the journey takes you. A smooth three-stage trolley system, in-line wheels, detachable ergonomic shoulder strap, and integrated TSA combination lock make traveling effortless—from local gigs to international festivals.

This isn't just another collaboration.

It's a tribute to the communities that inspire us, the creators who shape culture, and the music that connects us all.
